Service Leadership Clubs Are Back At It

Our Service Leadership Program Clubs that we sponsor are back at work. Jamestown HS Key Club members and advisors spent most of August painting hallways in the school. CKI has already held a car wash. And all the clubs will be at the Shrimp Feast in strength, helping in all the activities to make the event a success. Please take the time to walk

Kiwanis is a global organization of volunteers dedicated to changing the world one child and one community at a time.

Today's Speaker: Jason Bartholomew

Jason Bartholomew is the Program Director for Transformation of Care at Sentara Healthcare. He came to Sentara in 2008 as an Administrative Fellow. He has worked previously in both administrative and clinical capacities for Intermountain Healthcare, UNC Hospital & Health System, and Keystone Planning Group.

Jason Bartholomew

He received a master's of healthcare administration from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, and a bachelor's in economics from Brigham Young University. He currently serves as the president for Healthcare Administrators of Tidewater, the local chapter of the American College of Healthcare Executives.

He lives with his wife Lisa and three children in Chesapeake. He likes basketball, fly fishing, and spending time with family.

up to them Saturday and say hello!

The CKI International Convention and Large Scale Service Project (LSSP) was held in St. Louis this August on the campus of Washington University. The LSSP, with some 150 CKI members attending, worked on Habitat for Humanity projects and with disadvantaged children for four days before the convention. The Capital District CKI was there in strength, accompanied by Tom French.

Next year's International Convention will be in Virginia Beach.

Two Outstanding Service Opportunities Are Available in September

(The following message is from Mary Beth Murphy.)

Since the Board of Directors recently voted to distribute our funds raised by the Shrimp Feast to three very worthy organizations, the need for service to our other beneficiaries has become extremely important. We have two wonderful service opportunities this month, which I truly hope you will consider.

Grove Christian Outreach "Back to School Festival," Thursday, Sept. 9 from 3:30 p.m. to 7:30 p.m. – This is an annual event which helps up to 400 needy children obtain needed school supplies in a fun and exciting atmosphere. There will be rides, face painting, crafts and games with all of the prizes being school supplies. Volunteers will be needed as follows:

18 Ride Attendants, 2 Face Painters, 2 Craft Table Attendants, 2 Parking Attendants, 3 Concessions Attendants and 1 Registration Attendant.

We can also put up a Kiwanis banner and display Kiwanis literature to promote who we are and why we are participating "for the children!" We also have the opportunity to donate school supplies, concession supplies or funds to help to make this event a success.

Avalon "Day of Caring," Wednesday, Sept. 15, all day – This is Avalon's one day of cleanup and repair to their facility and they need lots of help, especially with the following:

Installing ceiling fans, towel bars, broom and mop holders; tightening kitchen cabinet hinges; replacing smoke detectors around campus, and afternoon project wrapup (helping complete other projects that are unfinished).

Please consider these two projects and let me know if you can help in any way with either or both. This is what Kiwanis is all about, folks!

A Rare Treat For Sept. 15 Meeting: A Chance to Gather at the Inn

To make up for some scheduling conflicts at our usual meeting venues for our Sept. 15 meeting, Colonial Williamsburg is offering us a rare treat: A chance to meet at the beautiful Williamsburg Inn.

Be sure to mark in your calendar for next week's meeting that we'll be in the Regency Room at the Inn, normal time.

Attend "Wine on Wednesday" Event Sept. 22 To Socialize, Benefit Our Club

Mark your calendars for Wednesday, Sept. 22: The Williamsburg Winery is hosting a series of Wine on Wednesdays in September, and our club was selected as one of the benefactors.

For a nominal fee, you can enjoy a happy hour, Williamsburg Winery wines, appetizers, and we receive a portion of all dollars received! It is an easy way for us to socialize – bring your family and friends – and raise dollars to donate back to the community. More details to follow, but make sure your plan to attend!

Next Interclub Meeting to Be Held Tomorrow With Downtown Norfolk

Our next Interclub meeting will be a lunch meeting to be tomorrow (Thursday), Sept. 9, at noon at the Downtown Norfolk Club, which is held at the Norfolk Scope (I-64 to Rte. 168 S., exit 277A, Rte. 168 to E. Brambleton Ave., right to Scope at 201 E. Brambleton).

We will meet at the Williamsburg Crossing shopping center, Rte. 199 and John Tyler Highway, in the main lot near Taco Bell at 10:45 a.m. to car pool. Please e-mail gbestes@cox.net or see him at the meeting if you plan to attend.

We Can Still Be Distinguished Club

Remember, to be recognized as "distinguished" we need to reach 190 members by the end of September. We can help achieve this result by finishing the job we started in building the Kiwanis Club of Fort Eustis. Contact Hugh Siggins, Carla Morin, Wade Quinn, President Caren Schumacher or me for information about our new club. We will invite them to an informational meeting and invite them (and you, if you please) to learn about the opportunities to become a charter member of The Kiwanis Club of Fort Eustis.
