Virginia Opera

Next Outing: Sun., April 10 in Richmond

(The following is from Carol Negus.)

The next Virginia Opera Kiwanis outing is scheduled for Sunday, April 10, a matinee performance, curtain at 2:30 p.m. This one will be in Richmond at Center Stage (Carpenter Center). I will be at this week's Kiwanis meeting with a sign-up sheet and hope to sign many of you to join us.

The tickets for the performance range from $32 to $74. Orchestra center and mezzanine (loge) seats for the matinee are sold out, but there is availability for our group 1st Dress Circle ($74); Orchestra sides ($64); Orchestra Rear ($52); 2nd Dress Circle ($32).

We have had a wonderful time at previous outings and hope that you consider joining us. Dinner will follow at a very fine Richmond restaurant. Several members have indicated that they would like to car pool. When we have the final count I will send the list out to those members who are going, and they can contact each other for carpooling.

Because of the popularity of this opera, the deadline for getting the checks to me with your preference of seating is no later than March 1.

It is a pleasure to be working with the club on this annual soaring event. I look forward to speaking with those interested at the meeting.

Kiwanis International is a global organization of members of every age who are dedicated to changing the world, one child and one community at a time.

Today's Speaker: Sandy Fagan

Sandy Fagan

Sandy Fagan has been involved with the Bacon Street organization since its founding in 1971, and has spent his entire adult life fighting youth substance abuse. He served as a volunteer and Board Member until 1974 when he joined the staff as a counselor.

After serving as clinical supervisor for a year, Fagan was named Executive Director in 1977.

Prior to joining the Bacon Street staff, Fagan served in the United States Army as an Infantry Officer, and worked for the Department of Defense developing substance abuse programs for military dependents. He has served as a consultant to numerous organizations in both the public and private sectors including school divisions, universities, police departments, AT&T and Lucent Technologies.

Fagan holds both bachelor's and master's degrees from the College of William and Mary and resides in James City County. He has three children, Madison, Will, and Alec.

Recognizing Kiwanis Newsmakers and Unsung Heroes

Two of our own have recently been given two different hats to wear, and large ones at that:

The Williamsburg Hotel-Motel Association has chosen Billy Scruggs as its new president.

The Greater Williamsburg Chamber and Tourism Alliance has chosen Kevin Walsh as its next chairman of the board.

And our unsung hero for this month is Carol Copenhaver. Carol is our Assistant Secretary for Meeting Hospitality. Carol is wonderful at doing a very tough job. She makes every effort to accommodate everyone's needs. Trying to please 100 people every week is all but impossible but she makes it happen. Watch her scurry around the room working with the CW staff to make our lunch meeting a success. Please take a moment to say thank you to Carol.

Garvey Memorial Soccer Tourney is March 16-18

(The following message is from Harrison Bresee.)

It is that time of year again when our club will be running the Wolf Trap Park site for the Christine Garvey Memorial Soccer Tournament. Of course, to do this I will need some help from you. Just like last year, I will need five volunteers each day: three volunteers from 2 to 5 p.m. and two volunteers from 5 to 7 p.m. Please let me know the day and time you would be willing to volunteer. I will organize everything, all you need to do is show up and sell concessions or set up the fields.

Available dates are Thursday, March 17, and Friday, March 18 (we already have Wednesday, March 16, covered). Please let me know if you have any questions.
